[2] Has jurisdiction in criminal cases arising within City of Detroit; also has Traffic and Ordinance Division.

[3] Has exclusive jurisdiction in civil matters up to $5,000 and concurrent jurisdiction with Wayne County Circuit Court in cases under $10,000.

*The Michigan Legislature passed legislation (Public Acts 438-443 of 1980) to implement the first phase of state financing for trial courts and to reorganize the Wayne County/Detroit courts. The initial phase began September 1, 1981 with the administrative merger of Wayne County Circuit Court and Recorder's Court - Criminal Division and the establishment of the 36th District Court in the City of Detroit. The 36th District Court was created by transferring the employees and functions of the abolished Common Pleas Court, and the Traffic and Ordinance Division and District Court jurisdiction of Recorder's Court to the new court.

This new legislation established a State Judicial Council which is the employer of trial court employees paid by the state. Employees working in these courts on August 31, 1981 and those hired thereafter became employees of the Judicial Council.

State of the Judiciary Message
Presented to the Michigan Legislature
March 23, 1982
by
Chief Justice Mary S. Coleman
Michigan Supreme Court

This is a day I will never forget. Among a myriad of reasons, it not only marks the fourth and long-announced final time I will stand here as Chief Justice to report to you on the State of the Judiciary, but it is the day when the Calhoun County Bar and other "legal people" have chosen to honor my husband Creighton for this his last week of public office in Michigan. This includes his eight years of service across the rotunda in the Senate and twenty-two years as a circuit judge.

Both of us are grateful for the opportunities, through good years and bad, to have been part of the life and growth of Michigan.

It has occurred to me that some of you might expect me to join my husband in his well-publicized (and, through many gifts, now well-equipped) plan for retirement - that is, to clean the basement. —But not so!

There are many goals our Court has yet to realize. The most immediate, of course, is to cope with a partially unconstitutional Michigan constitution - that is, by U. S. Supreme Court standards - and decide how you, the House and the Senate, are to be reapportioned. Only within recent hours have we received the final plans of the deadlocked two parties who comprise the Commission to Reapportion the Legislature. It is possible that it really makes no difference what those plans may be. In other words, as I write this, I cannot say whether all of the 1963 constitutional provisions, excepting that part specifying purely geographic considerations, can be saved or whether all must fail because part was invalidated by the one-man-one-vote decision of the U. S. Supreme Court. (Reynolds v Sims.) It is doubtful that a free-wheeling Commission standing alone will survive. If you think this is for you, who do not know where your election districts will lie, comparable to the "Perils of "Pauline", you should have been a member of my Court over the last weeks. --But more about this later.

In the meanwhile, I will make a few short reports and then hasten to address a major goal which I am sure you are expecting - and I would never wish to disappoint you. That is the eventual fair funding of the courts of Michigan.

While speaking of finances, I gratefully acknowledge a positive response to my former pleas for assistance in resolving ambiguities in the field of governmental immunity law and a problem of increasing distress to schools and various other local and state governmental functions.

A task force has been assembled under auspices of the Department of Management and Budget to chart a course in this no man's land on the legislative-judicial frontier. When recommendations are ready, I earnestly commend them to your serious attention. It is a legislative duty — not a judicial function -- to spell out public policy. When you abdicate your responsibilities, the public turns to the courts. We are ill-equipped to make decisions of such great and unknown economic impact upon public resources.

I renew my suggestion that the Legislature address the separation of powers conflict growing out of legal service for indigents taking criminal appeals. The agencies legislatively provided to oversee this branch of legal advocacy, the State Appellate Defenders Office and the Office of the Assigned Appellate Counsel Administrator, which now is in place pursuant to legislative requirements, should be housed outside the administrative orbit of the Supreme Court. These are executive functions, the same as the prosecutors' function. We can regulate neither, other than order their participation. It is inappropriate for the Supreme Court even to appear to be in charge of one side of a law suit.

While supporting effective appellate counsel for indigent persons charged with crimes, I cannot feel comfortable unless I direct your attention to the imbalance of state services afforded to the "People". The Attorney General has three persons handling the criminal appeals of 65 counties and, in addition, jurisprudentially important appeals elsewhere.

However, I repeat and emphasize my plea that the financing and control of neither side of the lawsuit come under the body which must sit in judicial review of their cases. This will become of particular importance as your provision for state-wide assigned private appellate counsel comes into full implementation. Before leaving this subject, as Senator Guastello and others have said, closer screening is needed of defendants for actual inability to pay, and a recoupment mechanism provided with appropriate legislation for those instances in which reimbursement at a later time is feasible and just.

You have many current bills which impact substantively upon courts, so I cannot here remark upon all. I will, however, mention in passing that I have been following proposed legislation designed to reorganize the Friend of the Court operation so vital to repair the wreckage remaining from broken marriages. With the strong initiative of Representative Debbie Stabenow and the assistance of many persons knowledgeable about this facet of the circuit court, a package of bills is being developed which, with a few amendments and a realistic plan for financing, is worthy of your careful consideration. It addresses both the human and economic problems inherent in divorces, particularly where children are involved. Many or most Friends of the Court are self-supporting at the present time and with adequate planning should be so under the package.

It is appropriate that I speak now of the condition of the courts of Michigan. For the most part, I am proud of their ability to cope with ever-increasing caseloads when many are understaffed and operating in less than adequate facilities. Such crises as there are, are primarily financial in nature and there are too many of those. (E.g., there are a couple of funding units for District Courts threatening to cut off their funding completely because of severe budget problems, but cities cannot unilaterally abolish their legislatively established courts, so we are trying to devise workable plans.)

Aside from the quantity and quality of current litigation, and fiscal problems, we have no raging conflagrations in the state's judicial life.

As many of you know, the Supreme Court, with its administrative arm, has cut back its expenditures by eliminating virtually all publications, terminating positions, closing two of five field offices and, to date, observing payless holidays consistent with the Civil Service Commission's program. The Court of Appeals and the various Commissions and Boards relating to the Court also have been on this program.

Although those cuts mean that staff members often have to do the work of two or more, we still must plan and go forward towards bringing our own Court and others into the 20th century. Our excellent Court Administrator, Russell Baugh, is trying to work with other staff heads to design a plan of attack on everything from records, which are threatening to push out people, to effective computerization, not only for Wayne County/Detroit, but for the remainder of Michigan courts. We are considering the viability of moving the Judicial Data Center from Detroit to Lansing, to serve also the Supreme Court operations and State Judicial Council. This is not for tomorrow, but plans take time.

In the meanwhile, our judicial education arm, the Michigan Judicial Institute, has become the most comprehensive and effective in the country - in my unbiased opinion. As you and the federal and state appellate courts change the law or rules, the judges and court staff members must keep abreast of the latest developments. This education is inextricably entwined with the human side of the equation. Seventy-six percent of all judges and 2,000 staff members attended the Institute this past year. (10,000 in five years.)

This summer, we hope to implement sentencing guidelines and pass upon a total rewrite of general court rules. I have appointed another committee to draft proposals for much-needed rules of criminal procedure.

Our hard-working Committee to write Civil Jury Instructions has just completed a two-volume edition of instructions published by the Institute of Continuing Legal Education, U. of M. This is important not only to the bench and bar, but to clients who may not then feel impelled to appeal because the jury was erroneously instructed. Great credit goes to Circuit Judge Theodore R. Bohn's committee.

These are but a very few activities of the Court, but I would be remiss if I failed to mention the efficient docket control by the Court of Appeals, with over 6,000 appeals and expecting more. The Court has been modernized in its equipment and is ably headed by Chief Judge Danhof.

Our own caseload consistently has been about one-third of the Court of Appeals numbers. We had about 2,000 cases filed in the Supreme Court last year. Each one of us must act on each case. Again, we broke all records for dispositions. Eight hour days would be akin to heaven.

Although Michigan's figurative Mt. St. Helens has been bubbling, it has not yet erupted over our system of justice. Together, we have achieved much towards containing it.

This four year period when the three branches of government have worked so closely for a better Michigan, we have witnessed a great cooperative achievement. If one more goal can be reached this year, I will count my stewardship as a judicial administrator, coupled with yours in legislative statesmanship, as handsomely fulfilled.

This goal, which I commend strongly to you today, is to put in place the next step in the statutory scheme for phase two of state financing of the entire Michigan court system.

I say — "the statutory scheme". In this year of agonizing state economic and budgetary distress, I speak not of new expenditures in the present budget nor of the budget for next year.

Instead, I speak of the need, in statutory terms, of spelling out for the fiscal 1983-84, and for succeeding years, the commitment the Legislature already has made twice in summary fashion to statewide court financing of state courts.

It was a decision to lift from financially struggling counties, in stages, the onerous and growing burden of shouldering the lion's share of operating costs of a state function -- delivery of reasonable and necessary judicial services to all parts of Michigan.

That commitment initially was laid down, in skeletal form, in section 38 of Public Act 111 of 1979, the general government appropriation bill of that year. It was reaffirmed again in skeletal fashion in Public Act 438 of 1980. That was the implementation bill for phase one, reorganization of a major share of its operating expense.

As a commitment to the remainder of the state, a schedule of cost assumption ending in 1988 was included. Also, provision was made for small sums to be spread across all other counties towards stabilization of now widely divergent judicial salaries and retirement realities which fall differently upon each of the three trial court benches in our constitutionally designated "One Court of Justice". We need now to delineate the steps by which the transition will be effected across the remainder of the state, the transition from existing local financing patterns to the promised plan of stability and more uniform delivery of justice.

Fortunately, in developing the required blueprint, it will be possible to build on some legislative foundations which you devised in the Detroit-Wayne County situation.

Already in being, for example, is the State Judicial Council established as the State employer of all state-paid judicial employees.

I am pleased to report to you that the Council, comprised of two district, probate, and circuit judges from each bench, plus the Director of the Department of Management and Budget and the State Court Administrator as Chairman, is discharging its monumental responsibilities with remarkable dedication and efficiency. Individual aberrations in what was a jig-saw puzzle of fiscal schemes have for the most part been addressed and resolved.

The administrative bridge between the 3rd Circuit Court and Recorder's Court (Detroit felony) is in place. To the everlasting credit of the judges, the staff, their union representatives, Mayor Young, and others, and particularly to my colleague Justice James L. Ryan, this gigantic disruption of the status quo has proceeded more smoothly than I ever had dared to hope. The Supreme Court designated Justice Ryan to represent it on a day-to-day basis during the transition, which, of course, still continues in some areas. Adequate facilities represent a major problem. Computerization of those high volume courts is proceeding well as of last report, with as little cost to the state as possible.

Now that the most difficult problems have been addressed and the foundation laid for further implementation of PA 438 of 1980, the task of designing a transition statute has begun with technicians drawn from the three branches of government and under the watchful eye of Dr. Gerald Miller (Department of Management and Budget).

When they are ready - I hope soon - I am confident that they will have the support of the Governor, just as he strongly supported the first phase of this historic move to bring the judicial branch into the present world and to realize the mandate of the 1963 constitution to creat in reality "One Court of Justice".

Personally, of the many prospects of how to proceed to meet the requirements of the 1980 statute that 20% of court costs be assumed by the state in 1983, the most promising way, based upon the experience of other states, is to adopt a modified New York system of placing all Michigan court employees on the state payroll with provision for an 80% reimbursement from the counties in 1983-84, a 60% reimbursement in 1984-85 and so on until 1988 when the 100% goal would be reached. This would envision a unified judicial budget administration. The revenue and expense picture of each trial court administrative unit would be channeled regularly into a single cohesive statewide accounting center.

This plan would entail a monumental task of preparation both by the State Judicial Council (as the employer) and by our own Finance Department, but it can be done with the lead time between now and fiscal 1983-84.

On its face, any legislation to provide that these building blocks be placed on the foundation of 1980 will require some speed. This Governor, most of this Legislature and this Chief Justice have worked to bring about what many declare to be a miracle of progress in Michigan's fractionalized state system of justice. We have, with extraordinary cooperation, overcome the most difficult and divisive of basic problems. At least part of this reservoir of experience and interrelationship will be absent next year.

In 1980, when only the courts within Wayne County were being considered for funding (provided there was a massive reorganization), many of you from other parts of the state asked what reason you had to believe that the funding units within your districts would also be relieved of paying for a state function over which they had little control - and that only to pay the bills. Representative Virgil Smith and Senator Basil Brown who primarily guided the bills through the Legislature, the Governor and I, among many of you from both parties, committed ourselves to the effort of relieving sorely burdened local government of this state function. The Governor will not be here next year. I will not be Chief Justice and some of you will not be here by choice - and no one on earth knows at this moment what will result from reapportionment of the Legislature.

We have together started a success story for Michigan - not by any Oscar-winning solo performances, but by working jointly during some quite improbable hours and places.

If ever I have experienced a time labeled "Opportunity", it is now for the completion of the structure which we have started.

We remain where we are together for only a relatively short time, so we must act speedily and with coordination and openness. If we can accomplish this goal and a fair apportionment of this Legislature, I will indeed feel blessed.

Returning to reapportionment, for which I left some room towards the end of these remarks, I still have nothing concrete to report to you after this morning's deliberations, excepting that we seem close to a conclusion on the questions of constitutionality. Today is dedicated to an attempt to conquer that mountain standing in the way of final action. I know that this news will not comfort you, nor will the fact that we have labored long hours and days to achieve a resolution based soundly in law and resulting in fair apportionment of the Legislature. I think it is safe to say, minimally, that 1982 will not be a repeat performance of 1972.

Regardless of the outcome, we again, with all of our collective vigor and sincerity, urge the Legislature to draft and pass a joint resolution which would rewrite Article IV, sections 2 - 6 of the 1963 Constitution so that our people can vote on a method of reapportionment. The present provisions already are either partially — by standards of the United States Constitution - or totally unconstitutional as could be determined by the Michigan Supreme Court. The interesting question then would become: How would apportionment take place? My friends, all of us will have to wait for the next chapter of the decennial thriller -- for which I am determined you will not have to wait long.

Now, it is time for me to express to you my deep appreciation for your courtesies, your good will and for the opportunities afforded me and my predecessors to report to you on the State of the Judiciary and to share mutual concerns. These are more than polite words. In some states, the Legislature and the judiciary do not communicate. Our national government does not follow this practice. Gossip has it that there is a fear that such a tradition really would only result in a glory-grab by the Chief of Justice, hungering for TV exposure. I thought this Chief Justice's problem was the opposite.

Personally, I believe that tradition and protocol have a place in government. For my part, I firmly believe that we public officers — you of the Legislature and we of the judiciary — benefit in the discharge of our duties by consciously and steadily heeding the role of our fellow public servants — whether that role potentially is supportive, complementary or challenging.

A friend of mine - a judge - sent a copy of a speech by former ABA President, William T. Gossett, of Michigan. It was given in 1968. He noted that the times were not placid and that our society was not peaceful. In ending, he spoke of an incident from a Samuel Beckett play. Two tramps were walking along a secluded road when they heard a cry ring out for help. They discussed the risks of becoming involved, noting that the cries were not to them personally, but to all mankind. Then one said, "But at this place, at this moment of time, all mankind is us, whether we like it or not. Let us make the most of it, before it is too late!"

The Court completed 1,813 cases in the year ending 6/30/82, the seventh successive all-time record. That is 311% more than were completed 13 years ago or, stated another way, it is 4.11 times as many as were completed then.

Notwithstanding this extraordinary and sustained record of achievement the number of cases pending (under consideration but not completed) is 5.57 times as many as 13 years ago because new cases filed have increased by numbers greater than the completions.

CASES COMPLETED = Court work completed, jurisdiction relinquished

COMPLETED BY OPINIONS = Self-explanatory

FINAL ORDERS WITHOUT OPINIONS. These are orders issued in response to an application for leave to appeal, pursuant to GCR 1963, 852.2(4) (g) or 853.2(4), reversing, reversing in part, affirming, remanding for specific proceedings, etc., without formal opinion but with specific reasons stated in the order, for the action taken. There is no oral argument in these cases. This is a more summary procedure than the leave granted process which, because it involved printed briefs, oral arguments and formal opinions, takes approximately 20 months longer to complete a case.

DENIALS OF LEAVE TO APPEAL. In general an appeal as of right to the Court of Appeals exists with regard to final judgments of the lower courts. Const 1963, Art IV, § 4, and GCR 1963, 852.1 and 853.1 vest the Supreme Court with the discretion to deny a further appeal.

DISMISSALS AND WITHDRAWALS. Of the few cases in this category, most are dismissed or withdrawn by the action and consent of both parties. Less than ten percent of these few cases are dismissed by the Court on motion charging failure to diligently pursue the appeal.

*GRANTS. Orders granting leave to appeal do not complete Court action on a case. Therefore, they are not included as case completions. The number of the orders granting leave to appeal each year is compared, as a percentage, to the totals of columns B, C and D, not including A. Thus, the percentage accurately reflects the proportion of grants made to applications for leave to appeal acted upon.

III TYPES OF CASES FILED WITH THE SUPREME COURT

Of the 2,083 cases filed with the Supreme Court last year, 2,008 or 96% were applications for leave to appeal from decisions made by the Court of Appeals, or prisoners' requests for relief from decisions of that Court, which are considered in much the same manner as applications for leave to appeal. The other 75 cases filed last year, 4% of the total, consisted of the following kinds of actions: 25 applications for leave to appeal prior to decision by the Court of appeals; 9 applications for leave to appeal from Attorney Discipline Board decisions; 28 complaints for mandamus or superintending control relative to Grievance Board or Board of Law Examiner matters; 2 Judicial Tenure Commission cases; 3 requests from federal courts to certify questions to this Court; 1 request for an advisory opinion; and 7 special proceedings related to the admission of foreign attorneys. This ratio, 96% applications for leave to appeal after decision by the Court of Appeals and 4% all other categories, is the same as the last 3 years and has been relatively constant since the inception of the Court of Appeals in 1965.

Of the 2,083 cases filed, 1,113 or 53% were criminal cases and 970 or 47% were civil cases. Since the inception of the Court of Appeals in 1965 the ratio of criminal and civil cases, preponderating on either side, has stayed within the limits of 6 to 4.

IV MOTIONS AND OTHER SEPARATE ORDERS

With the exception of the column concerning grants in the table in section II, all of the foregoing concerns case completions and final orders of the Court issued during the 12 month period ending 6/30/82.

MOTIONS. During the same period the Court issued 563 separate additional orders on motion matters as follows: 56 orders granting leave to appeal; 19 orders on motions for rehearing; 125 orders on motions for reconsideration; 5 corrective orders issued on the Court's own motions; 65 orders holding cases in abeyance, issued on the Court's own motions; 80 miscellaneous orders on motions for bail, for a stay of proceedings, to tax or not tax costs, etc.; 122 orders issued by the Chief Justice here commonly called "housekeeping orders", e.g., orders on motions to extend the time for filing briefs, to place on or withdraw a case from a session calendar, or for oral argument, etc.; and 91 orders on motions for admission to the bar. In addition to these 563 separate orders on motions there are now each year over 1,000 motions acted upon by the Court where those actions are included within the final order issued which completes the Court's work on the case.

During this same period 104 judgment orders on opinions were issued.

V ADMINISTRATIVE WORK

The Court's administrative workload has also more than quadrupled in the last 14 years. This work stems largely from the Court's responsibility for superintending the judicial system. During the 12 months covered by this report the Court met 19 times in administrative sessions and considered and acted upon 103 agenda items such as Rules changes, sentence review guidelines, fees for appointed attorneys, requirements for admission to the bar without examination, contingency fees, standards for disqualification of judges, procedures and standards for assignment of appellate counsel, public access to court records, foster care review boards, appointments to the various Boards, Commissions and Committees for which the Court has the responsibility to make appointments, fee schedules, the Law Library, disciplinary rules for lawyers and Wayne County Court Reorganization. Analytical and factual reports, some very extensive including input solicited from the bench, bar, interested public officials and the public, are prepared by the Court Commissioners office for the Court and are considered beforehand and then acted upon during administrative sessions. In addition to this more formal method of handling administrative matters, many matters are acted upon, of necessity informally, sometimes by telephone conference.

In 1969 only 15 formal administrative orders were issued. In the 12 months here reported on 67 were issued and, over the last 5 years an average of 52 formal administrative orders have been issued per year.

VI CONCLUSION

The Court has searched for every conceivable means to cope with the problems stemming from the more than fourfold increase in its case and administrative workloads. It has enlarged its staff; utilized the most efficient equipment; and adopted procedures to complete more cases and to complete them sooner. In the year ended 6/30/82 the Court issued 2,547 orders; 1,813 final orders and 734 orders on motions and administrative matters. With trivial exceptions, each Justice must act upon each order. Thus, in the year ended 6/30/82, each Justice had to reach a decision about and participate in the issuance, on average, of 10 orders per day every weekday of the year. The Court will continue to seek greater efficiency in its operation, to achieve greater production without a reduction of the quality of the decisions made, but it is believed that the Court is close to the limit of its capacity.

Assignment of Judges

ASSIGNMENT OF JUDGES

The Michigan Constitution, 1963, Art. VI, Sec. 23 and RJA Sec. 225, 226, 306, 825, 829 and 8212, as amended, authorize assignment of judges from one court to another either by direct order of the Supreme Court or through the State Court Administrator.

Judicial vacancies occur during the year due to retirement, death, or serious illness which require an assignment to provide temporary assistance to a court which is experiencing a sudden increase in trial work or a series of lengthy trials. Assignments are also made when a court is behind in its work or when a case requires disqualification of a particular judge or an entire bench.

In most instances, assignments to the Court of Appeals or the Circuit, District, or Probate Courts are made without regard to whether the assigned judge regularly sits on that court. For example, it is not unusual for a Probate Judge to be assigned to a Circuit Court, District to Circuit, Circuit to Court of Appeals, etc. This flexibility provides more efficient use of the most precious commodity in court administration: judge time.

Assignments of retired or former judges to all courts except the probate court require expenditure of state funds for payment of the state portion of the assigned judge's compensation and expenses. The balance of the assigned judge's compensation is the responsibility of local governmental units and is paid from local funds.

Assignments of incumbent "sitting" judges to any court, and assignments of retired judges to the probate courts, are wholly funded under the law by the local governmental units and thus require no state expenditure.

Michigan Judicial Tenure Commission

ANNUAL REPORT

Michigan Judicial Tenure Commission

COMMISSION PURPOSE

The Judicial Tenure Commission was created by constitutional amendment in 1968, (Mich Const, Art VI, Sec 30) in response to a need for a less cumbersome method than impeachment for the removal of unfit judges. The electorate was also satisfied that a more effective procedure was required to discipline and correct the conduct of judges who, while not engaging in activity warranting removal, nevertheless adversely effected the proper administration of justice and the essential confidence it must generate.

The Commission by its presence and public activity contributes to better public understanding of the judicial process and better judicial performance. Through the confidentiality of its private investigations and deliberations, minor grievances can be reviewed and remedied without media attention.

The Commission is comprised of nine members who serve, without pay, for terms of three years. The Commission employs an Executive Director and seven permanent or part-time staff members to perform its required work. Staff members investigate all grievances and act as examiners in presenting formal complaints at Commission hearings.

COMMISSION PROCEDURE

The Commission has the authority to review written grievances which allege misconduct or disability and, after a preliminary investigation of the facts and circumstances, can then determine whether a formal complaint should be filed against a judge. The Commission is further empowered to conduct a public hearing before itself or an appointed Master. Thereafter, the Commission may recommend to the Supreme Court, where appropriate, that a judge be either censured, suspended with or without salary, retired or removed from office.

A judge shall be found guilty of misconduct if:

(a) The judge is convicted of a felony.

(b) The judge persistently fails to perform judicial duties.

(c) The judge is habitually intemperate by appearing in court under the influence of alcohol.

(d) The judge's conduct is clearly prejudicial to the administration of justice.

(e) The judge is persistently incompetent or neglectful in the performance of his judicial duties.

Additionally, a judge shall be removable from office for physical or mental disability which prevents the performance of his duties for a substantial period of time.

It is important to clarify that the Commission does not function as an appellate court to review judicial decisions for factual or legal errors. Further, it does not have the power to investigate or discipline attorneys, federal judges, court personnel, members of the legislature, prosecutors or police officers. It may not give legal advice to citizens or represent clients, although it will refer persons to other agencies where appropriate. The Commission's jurisdiction is limited to misconduct, as defined by the Code of Judicial Conduct and the Code of Professional Responsibility.

The Constitution and Court Rules safeguard the confidentiality of all grievances and their investigation except as to the parties involved.

Prior to the filing of a formal complaint, neither Commissioner nor staff member may disclose the existence or contents of an investigation. An exception may occur when, in the public interest, the Commission may issue a public statement confirming a pending investigation, or a completed investigation resulting in insufficient evidence for filing a complaint.

After a formal complaint is filed, it is a matter of public record and all subsequent proceedings are conducted in open public hearings.

The Commission must determine initially whether a grievance appears to be valid and well-founded and alleges facts indicating misconduct or disability. This is accomplished through preliminary inquiry by the staff. Many grievances are dismissed at this stage as without sufficient merit.

If the grievance proves to have substance, the judge under investigation receives notice of the allegations and is given a reasonable opportunity to respond. Thereafter, the Commission must consider the judge's reply and determine whether or not to bring formal charges by the filing of a formal complaint.

On grievances of a relatively minor nature, the Commission may dismiss the grievance and privately caution a judge with respect to his conduct, or, under appropriate circumstances, enter a recommendation of private censure with the Supreme Court. An order of private censure must be kept secret and confidential.

If, as a result of a formal hearing, misconduct is established, the Commission must submit its own decision regarding the case and recommend suitable discipline to the Supreme Court. Upon a review of the entire record, the Court may accept, reject or modify the recommendation of the Commission.

ANNUAL REPORT

Summary of Grievances Considered

Analysis of Data:

Some brief conclusions can be drawn upon an examination of the above grievance data:

(1) 70 to 80% of all grievances are either obviously unfounded or frivolous on their face or prove so after preliminary inquiry. The usual grievance of this type comes from a dissatisfied litigant who has accused the judge of partiality or disregard of the law in the case, but who points to no substantiating evidence. Such person is advised of the proper appellate remedy.

(2) Numerous grievances are received from litigants in divorce or custody matters, from criminal defendants, and from parties to small claims actions. A common assertion made is that the judge failed to give the parties a fair hearing in the case. Judges might profitably reexamine their attitude and demeanor toward lawyers and litigants and, where necessary, take more care to arrive at sound judgments, make their decisions and explain the reasons for their rulings with as little display of personal feeling as possible.

(3) It should be noted that the Commission has determined that it lacks jurisdiction to review grievances against administrative law judges or administrative hearing officers since they are civil servants employed within the executive branch of government and not judicial officers as defined in General Court Rule 932.

Action Taken in the Reporting Period

The Commission experienced a continuing increase in the receipt of requests for investigation during the period, with the filing of a record 319 grievances as noted. Additionally, 801 Request for Investigation forms were mailed to aggrieved parties in response to written or telephone inquiries. Many general questions regarding the judiciary and the discipline process were also answered.

Michigan Attorney Grievance Commission

ANNUAL REPORT

State of Michigan

Attorney Grievance Commission

October 1, 1981 - September 30, 1982

The Michigan Attorney Grievance Commission was created by the Supreme Court, effective October 1, 1978. Along with the simultaneously created Attorney Discipline Board, the Commission succeeeded the State Bar Grievance Board, which thereby expired. The Commission, pursuant to GCR 1963, 957.1, is the prosecution arm of the Supreme Court for the discharge of its constitutional responsibility to supervise and discipline Michigan attorneys. The offices of the Commission are located at Suite 600, Marquette Building, 243 W. Congress, Detroit, Michigan, 48226.

The Attorney Grievance Commission consists of seven persons who serve without compensation and are appointed as follows:

Three lawyers appointed by the Supreme Court; two public members appointed by the Supreme Court; two lawyers appointed by the Board of Commissioners of the State Bar of Michigan.

COMMISSION PROCEDURE

Chapter 95 of the General Court Rules governs the conduct of attorney disciplinary proceedings.

Grievances filed against attorneys are denominated "requests for investigation." Any person may file a request for investigation with the Grievance Administrator and the Grievance Administrator may file his own request for investigation where necessary. The filing of a request for investigation initiates the grievance process.

Following the filing of a request for investigation, the Grievance Administrator must determine whether there exists a prima facie allegation of professional misconduct, i.e. a violation of General Court Rule 953. The Grievance Administrator may reject the request for investigation, or he may conduct an investigation. Upon conclusion of the investigation, the Administrator recommends to the Commission that (1) the matter should be closed as there is not provable evidence of professional misconduct sufficient to sustain the burden of proof at a disciplinary proceeding, or (2) that authorization should be granted for the issuance of a formal complaint.

In the Commission's last fiscal year, October 1, 1981 to September 30, 1982, 3,112 requests for investigation were filed, as opposed to 3,015 for the previous year. This represents a continuation of receipt of grievances in excess of 3,000 which first occurred in the 1979-1980 fiscal year. The rate of intake is still far in excess of that which was experienced in previous years. In the fiscal year 1978-1979, for example, 2,578 grievances were filed.

Of the 3,112 grievances received, 1,816 were rejected by the Grievance Administrator pursuant to GCR 1963, 961.3; 911 were closed by the Commission pursuant to GCR 1963, 963.1(2); 176 were closed administratively; 194 resulted in confidential admonishments; and 210 were authorized by the Commission for formal proceedings. There was a decrease in the pending investigative caseload from 487 at the beginning of the period to 392 as of September 30, 1982. The investigative caseload is virtually current, with an average turnover time for receipt of a request for investigation to investigatory disposition of 90 days. Representing only 12.59% of the total annual intake, the pending investigative caseload is at an acceptably manageable level, and compares more than favorably with other jurisdictions across the country.

Assisting the full-time professional staff in the investigation function are some 200 volunteer investigators. The volunteer investigators are members of the State Bar of Michigan who perform pro bono on behalf of the Commission, and who are reimbursed only for actual out-of-pocket expenses. Approximately 10% of the formal investigations are referred to the volunteer investigators.

In prosecuting formal complaints before Hearing Panels of the Attorney Discipline Board (the Supreme Court's adjudicative agency for attorney discipline) the Administrator and his professional staff are assisted by some 150 volunteer counsel, who, like the volunteer investigators, are members of the State Bar of Michigan who donate their service to the Commission. Approximately 4.65% of the litigated matters are referred to volunteer counsel.

LITIGATION

Upon authorization by the members of the Commission, the Grievance Administrator causes a complaint to be prepared and filed with the Attorney Discipline Board. The Grievance Administrator is the party-petitioner to every formal charge of misconduct.

Hearings on charges of misconduct are held before three-lawyer hearing panels of the Attorney Discipline Board. The hearings are open to the public. The Grievance Administrator is required to prove his case by a preponderance of the evidence and the respondent may retain counsel, cross-examine witnesses proferred by the Administrator, and present evidence in his own behalf. The practice and procedure employed in non-jury civil cases are applicable to disciplinary proceedings as are the Michigan Rules of Evidence.

Upon conclusion of the hearings, if the panel finds that the Administrator has failed to prove misconduct by a preponderance of the evidence, the case against the respondent must be dismissed. If the panel concludes that professional misconduct has been proven by a preponderance of the evidence, the panel must enter an order of discipline, which may consist of a reprimand, probation, suspension or disbarment. A suspension or disbarment disqualifies the respondent from the practice of law, whereas a reprimand is in the nature of a public censure. Probation is in the nature of a supervised reprimand. All discipline in Michigan is a matter of public record. (The admonishment issued by the Commission is confidential and is an administrative warning not constituting discipline.)

Any party may appeal an order of a hearing panel as of right to the Attorney Discipline Board, and may seek leave to appeal to the Supreme Court from an order of the Attorney Discipline Board.

FUNDING

On a dollar per grievance basis, the Michigan expenditures for discipline are on the low end of the scale compared to other major states. Total expenditures for discipline for both the Commission and the Board represent only 22.4% of the State Bar's budget, with the Commission's share being 16.1% and the Board's share being 6.3%. Nevertheless, Michigan statistics on dispositions of requests for investigation and also on discipline imposed are more than favorably comparable with the several jurisdictions which spend much more money on their disciplinary operations. On a dollar-for-dollar basis, Michigan gets more production from its expenditures than virtually any other jurisdiction in the United States.

The expenses of the Attorney Grievance Commission for the fiscal year, October 1, 1981 - September 30, 1982 as certified by the State Bar were $547,686. Pursuant to General Court Rule 954, the entire expense of the Commission were paid by the State Bar of Michigan. No public tax dollars were employed in the funding of the Commission's operations.
